

RESIDENTIAL COLLEGE PROGRAM
2005-2007 CATALOG UPDATE
Changes effective 2006-2007

Course Update

INDV 110 Skills for Academic Success

2 hours

Taught by academic advisors in a discussion-oriented atmosphere, the course assists students from all divisions in developing skills for academic success. The course covers reading and understanding textbooks; listening, concentration, and note-taking strategies; understanding arguments and critical thinking; effectively managing time and avoiding procrastination; preparing for and taking tests; and understanding and confronting obstacles to learning.